DESCRIPTION

A huge plot of land of more than 108,000 m² is for sale near Cala San Vincent. This property can be purchased and used entirely as a private recreational property. Good to know, that it cannot be built on, but that is precisely why it is perfect for all other creative purposes.

Have you always dreamed of a large vegetable garden surrounded by nature, a piece of land for cattle breeding, an area for yoga classes or a place where you can relax in peace and quiet - all this is possible here! This plot of more than ten hectares borders directly on the sea and even offers a view of Mallorca on nice days.

This makes it increasingly difficult to find the secret, quiet places. Whenever you think you've found a unique, pristine piece of beach or nature, you'll soon realize you're not alone. You are soon joined by dozens of people, although you were actually alone in looking for a place.
