Surrounded by majestic pine trees that create a tranquil Mediterranean atmosphere, Villa Ocell epitomizes the essence of island living. With a capacity to host up to 14 people, the villa welcomes you with a decor that is authentically indigenous—white walls in perfect harmony with warm wood and natural fibers adorning every space. The attention to detail is evident, and the property holds a tourist license for up to 8 people.

Accessing this haven is an experience in itself. Ascend a staircase from the exterior entrance to reveal the main entrance, where comfort seamlessly meets aesthetics. Vehicles can be conveniently parked alongside the entrance through a private driveway.

The main floor unfolds as a cozy and open refuge, integrating the living-dining room and an open kitchen. The living room, adorned with linen sofas in natural tones, invites relaxation with its double chaise lounge and warm, natural fiber lamps. The room is equipped with a generous television, offering access to digital channels and Wi-Fi.

The well-equipped kitchen, with its extensive wooden bar, includes an oven, microwave, dishwasher, and a teppanyaki griddle for local culinary adventures. A wooden dining table for 10 people complements the spectacular view.

Outside, two tables facing the pool can accommodate up to 16 people, setting the stage for unforgettable gatherings. The ground floor features a guest toilet and two suites with separate bathrooms—one with a 160cm double bed and a natural linen headboard, and another with four beds, including a bunk bed for the younger members of the family.

The upper floor boasts two additional suites with independent bathrooms and a magnificent terrace for unforgettable dinners. One bedroom includes a 160 bed, fireplace, and a private terrace with access to the house's viewing point.
