DESCRIPTION

Can Rio is a beautifully renovated villa located between Santa Gertrudis and San Lorenzo, offering a serene retreat within the Ibicencan countryside. Set on 7,000 square meters of private land, this six-bedroom villa blends modern sophistication with traditional Mediterranean and Asian influences. Its airy, open-plan design and high-end finishes create a welcoming, boutique hotel feel, perfect for those seeking comfort and tranquility.

The main house features six en suite bedrooms, each designed with a contemporary touch, while a charming log cabin-style guest house adds an additional en suite bedroom. The spacious living, dining, and kitchen areas open out onto the lush garden, where the impressive 16-meter pool serves as a focal point, surrounded by daybeds, loungers, and various outdoor relaxation areas.

Can Rio's design incorporates elements imported from Bali, giving the space an exotic yet homely ambiance. From the luxurious woodwork to the carefully curated furnishings, every detail contributes to a sophisticated yet relaxed atmosphere, making it ideal for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet, peaceful moments in the heart of nature.

With its prime location and proximity to nearby amenities, this villa is the perfect balance of rural tranquility and modern convenience. Can Rio offers an unparalleled lifestyle, combining privacy, style, and luxury for those seeking a peaceful getaway in Ibiza.
