DESCRIPTION

This impressive property offers 359 m² of living space, combining generous proportions with a comfortable layout. With five bedrooms and five bathrooms, the home provides plenty of space for family living, guests, and relaxing in privacy.

The property is equipped with air conditioning for year-round comfort and an elevator that provides convenient access throughout the home. The spacious interiors create an inviting residential setting while offering the practicality expected from a well-appointed property.

Outside, a private garden provides additional space to enjoy the surroundings and outdoor lifestyle. The property also includes a garage, offering secure and convenient parking directly at the residence.

One of the property's strongest advantages is its location, with the beach only 2 minutes away. The city can be reached in approximately 5 minutes, while the airport is around 15 minutes away, making this an exceptionally well-connected home for both permanent living and holidays.
